Time on your hands?

With space at a premium in this edition of Stuff & Nonsense, we'll leave you to explore the possibilities of the latest websites to tickle our fancy:

www.petspalace.com.au/woof-magazine/one.shtml

– the world's first celebrity pet magazine written by dogs (we particularly like page 20)

www.perkler.com

– founded by two Aussie mates to help us keep track of loyalty perks

www.unnecessaryquotes.com

www.apostropheabuse.com

– both perfect for pedants

– we're still wondering if Meatwater, the product this website promotes, is the real thing or a magnificently sustained hoax. Meatwater claims to 'provide the essence of nutrition and the memory of dining without the hassle of eating'; flavours available include Tandoori Chicken, Haggis, Cheeseburger and Pigs with Wings.
